

Cayce Murphy

Music Teacher

Pronouns: she/her/hers

304-747-8840

www.caycemurphy.com

caycemurphymusic@gmail.com

Hello! My name is Cayce Murphy, and I am a K-12 certified music teacher in the state of West Virginia with a choral music emphasis and am pursuing a Master in Music degree at the University of Memphis in Memphis, TN. I have had experience observing and teaching in vocal and general music classrooms from elementary to secondary education settings. I am a recent graduate of Marshall University, and am originally from Charleston, WV.

SUMMARY

CAREER

2022

Kanawha County Schools, WV

SUBSTITUTE TEACHER

- Supervises and teaches students within Kanawha County School District in the event the regular teacher cannot be present.

2021

Russell High and Middle School, KY

STUDENT TEACHER

- Taught choral/vocal music in grades 6-12 in the Russell Independent School District for the Fall 2021 semester.
- Assisted in preparation for KJHC and HS All-State auditions.

EDUCATION

2017-2021

Bachelor of Arts, Music Education K-12

MARSHALL UNIVERSITY

- "Overall Student Teacher of the Year" Award recipient from the College of Education and Professional Development (COEPD), Fall 2021

Bachelor of Fine Arts, Vocal Performance

- Former Vice President and Secretary of Marshall University cNAfME (Collegiate National Association for Music Education) chapter.
- Social Media Ambassador for Marshall University

REFERENCES

Dr. Briana Nannen

Assistant Professor of Choral Music Education, Coordinator of Music Education at Marshall University nannen@marshall.edu

Dr. Josef Hanson

Associate Professor of Music Education, Instrumental at The University of Memphis
jhanson2@memphis.edu

Dr. Robert L. Lawson

President of Dynamic Professionals, Retired Professor/High School Teacher in Ohio School Districts
rlawson68@hotmail.com

Mrs. Theresa Russell

Choir Director/Teacher at Russell Independent Schools
theresa.russell@russellind.kyschools.us